Your Excellency

I urge you to drop all charges against Hanan Badr el-Din, and free her immediately and unconditionally.

She has been searching for her husband since he went missing in July 2013. Her latest attempt to get information about him has seen her arrested and wrongly charged with belonging to a banned group, which could mean at least five years in prison.

She should not lose her freedom simply for searching for her husband. Free her without delay and tell her what happened to him, so she can finally find peace in the truth.

Yours sincerely
